So now we have police officers being threatened with discipline if they won't violate our federal immigration laws as ordered by these defiant elected officials. So basically it boils down to a choice for our law enforcement officers, either commit a felony under federal law by harboring or concealing someone who the feds have told you is in the country illegally, or uphold the law and face disciplinary action, up to and including termination. My undercover units are poised and ready for whatever we can do to identify and expedite the arrest and removal of criminal illegal aliens. Our discussion regarding a hotline is clearly relevant.
